

Dosthill Dive Site Directions and Details

Dosthill Dive Centre
Church Road
Dosthill
Tamworth
B77 1LU

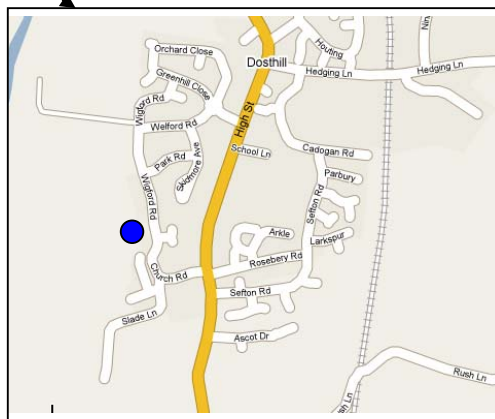

This is a private managed dive site. There are very limited facilities at this site. Dosthill Quarry near Tamworth, approximately 10 miles north-east of Birmingham, the site was bought in 1988 from the BSAC. Set in the beautiful green belt area of the Tame Valley, it offers a diving lake to 25 metres deep. Famed in bygone days for its quality granite, it enjoys particularly good visibility and some interesting underwater sights, including the original route of the quarry railway, which winds its way to the bottom.

- Entry is £12 per day visit

BEWARE

There are speed cameras all around the area.
